- 9 AM to 6 PM
- 10 AM to 7 PM
- 11 AM to 8 PM

Saturday Timings: 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM
Official Offs: 1st, 3rd & 5th Saturday & all Sundays

GUIDELINES

1) Team Coordination
- Each team must select a common start time convenient for all members to ensure smooth and effective collaboration.
- All team members are expected to adhere to the agreed-upon time to maintain consistency and productivity.

2) Marking of attendance
- Employees must punch in and out using the biometric attendance machine located at the department door.
- Attendance will be recorded by signing in upon arrival and signing out at the end of the workday and no manual attendance will be marked.
- In cases where your work requires additional support or deliverables, you may be required to arrive early or stay back. The necessary attendance support will be discussed as needed.
- Employees may avail of a half-day option, provided they work a minimum of 5 hours on that day.

3) Late arrival
- A 15-minute grace period is allowed for each selected start time – three times a month.
- If an employee arrives after the grace period for more than three times in a month, half a day's leave will be deducted starting from the fourth instance onwards. In cases where an employee does not have any paid leave, half a day's salary will be deducted.
- Employees must complete a minimum of 9 hours from Monday to Friday and 4 hours on Saturday to be considered present.

- Please note that late arrivals cannot be offset by extending work hours later in the day.

4) Saturday Guidelines
- No WFH (including menstrual WFH) or half day leave will be allowed on Saturday's.
- Attendance in Sharing Katta sessions and the club/internal learning session is mandatory unless approval is obtained.
- Non-compliance, such as leaving early, not participating in internal learning/clubs, or missing mandatory sessions without prior approval, will lead to being marked as absent, which will impact on the salary accordingly.

5) Leave Management
- Employees must align their leave plans with their TR and submit leave details in the attendance portal before the 26th of each month.
- Leave applications submitted after the 26th will be processed in the following month's payroll cycle.

6) Safety Guidelines for Women Employees:
- For safety reasons, women employees should be leaving the office premise by appropriate time (09:00 pm). If work requires extended hours, they will be eligible for reimbursement for transportation costs to ensure their safe commute.
- Any deviation from the above point must be approved by the TR, and written approval via email to HR is required.

7) Other cases
Employees must inform HR via email, with prior approval from the TR, in the following cases:
- Working at night.
- Working from home on a working day.
- Working on an official holiday (requires approval from the TR).

Note: To ensure accurate attendance tracking and regularization, an automated system will be in place. This system will facilitate seamless communication between employees and HR, allowing for easy management and verification of attendance records.
This policy does not alter or replace any other existing HR policies.

Compliance
Adherence to this policy is mandatory for all employees. Non-compliance may result in disciplinary action, including salary deductions, as outlined in this policy.

Review and Amendments
This policy is subject to review and amendments as necessary. Any changes will be communicated to all employees promptly.

FAQ'S

1) Who decides the start time for my team?
The start time is decided collectively considering your project requirement. It's a mutual decision to ensure that the deliverables of the project are met.

2) What happens if I utilize my 15 minutes grace period thrice?
If you are late more than three times in a month, half a day's leave will be deducted starting from the fourth instance onwards, followed by salary deducted if there are no paid leaves. Also, in cases where you arrive 16 minutes late, it will still be counted as a late arrival.

3) What if I am late due to visiting a client's office?
The attendance system allows you to regularize your attendance by submitting a request stating the reason for your late arrival. This request will be sent to the respective admin for verification. Once verified, one of the three late arrival instances for the month will be credited back to your account.

4) What situations are acceptable for regularizing attendance; in case I arrive late?
Attendance can be regularized in situations such as client visits, medical emergencies, official business travel, issues that affect a large number of people or other pre-approved work-related commitments. In these cases, proper documentation or prior approval is required.

5) When is regularizing attendance not acceptable?
Regularizing attendance is not acceptable in cases such as missing a train, getting stuck in traffic, or other personal reasons that do not involve unforeseen or critical circumstances.

6) Is it possible to regularize attendance due to public transportation strikes or other unforeseen public disruptions?
In cases of public transportation strikes or other unforeseen public disruptions, regularizing attendance may be considered on a case-by-case basis.

7) Can I change my start time in any case?
You cannot change your start time unless your project changes.

8) Can I take a half day?
Yes, you can avail of a half-day option, provided you work a minimum of 5 hours on that day.

9) If any learning session/ club is scheduled before/after my shift timing, can I change my shift for that day?
Learning/ club sessions are for your growth and building your capabilities and considering that learning sessions occur only once a week, you are expected to give that time for learning. Hence, no change of shift can be accommodated.

10)Do I need to visit the HRMS portal daily?
While it's a good habit to check the HRMS portal daily, but you must definitely check the portal if you are late, working on a client site, or out of office for other business reasons to regularize your attendance and avoid late penalties.

11) What if I leave early on Saturday?
You must complete the required 4 hours on Saturday (from 10-10:15 AM to 2 PM). If you leave early or fail to meet the required hours, you will be marked absent.

12) What if I am attending an event or on-site visit for the whole day?
Regularize your attendance using the WorkFlex option (on-site or wfh) and submit the details for approval.

13) What should I do if my half day leave is deducted, but I had a genuine reason for late arrival?
If your half day leave is deducted, after 3 late marks but you had a genuine reason, you must regularize your attendance before the fourth late instance. Once half day leave is deducted (system approved), it will not be refunded.

14) I didn't apply for leave but my leave is deducted?
If you haven't punched in and/or out on a working day, you will be marked absent, and leave will be deducted automatically. If you were working on-site or WFH, regularize it. If you were on leave, no action is needed.
